MZANSI came to know and love her as an actress on the small screen, but many do not know that Miranda Ntshangase is also a songbird.

She was Latoya in Tshisa and also acted in Rhythm City, Zabalaza and The Queen.

Now the Free State-born beauty is ready to grace the ears of music lovers.

She launched her single, Lendoda, last week.

Speaking to SunBuzz, Miranda said her song was inspired by her husband.

"The song is about how I met my husband and the way he made me feel. I prayed for a specific partner. When he came my way

I was astonished by the way I was feeling. It's a song that many people will relate to," said the businesswoman and mum of two.

The soulful yet jazzy tune is a taste of what Miranda will offer musically.

"I will release an EP soon and that will be followed by my debut album next year. I write and sing about my journey and my story."

Miranda said she's always wanted to be a singer but acting took over for some time.

"I studied music and did acting as a second major.

"God changed my path and acting became my focus but I feel that now is the time to go for music."

She juggles her roles as a wife, mum, businesswoman and entertainer successfully.

"I have an amazing support system that I'm grateful for. I'm really blessed to live my life exactly the way I want to. I couldn't do this without my kids' nanny and my husband.

"And I run my businesses from home so I'm always close to my boys," she said.
